The future is waiting for fearless young people like you.

Amy Adina Schulman Memorial Fund
SUPPORTING YOUNG PROGRESSIVE ACTIVISTS SINCE 1987

Let us help you change the world!

Amy Adina Schulman was an activist and student at Rutgers University dedicated to the ideals of social justice. After her sudden death in 1986, Amy Adina’s family and the communities she touched created the Fund to fulfill her ambition to imagine and work for a better future.

The Fund provides grants to young adults who volunteer or intern for progressive social action projects worldwide. We support change agents who want to make an impact in the world while developing their career and professional skills.

OUR GRANTEES

- Alyn Hospital in Jerusalem
- B’Tzedek – LIFE, Hyderabad, India
- Spark MicroGrants, Rwanda & Uganda
- Blue Sparrow NGO in Huancayo, Peru
- Good Water Neighbours Youth Camps

“I FEEL A PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY TO HELP THOSE LESS FORTUNATE THAN MYSELF... I WOULD LIKE MY CHILDREN TO BE CONCERNED INDIVIDUALS CONTINUING TO TRY TO MAKE THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE FOR ALL.”

–Amy Adina

Amy Adina Schulman, 1985

“WE ARE LAUGHING, SINGING, COMPLAINING TOGETHER, AND BEING HUMAN WITH EACH OTHER. EVEN IN THE MIDST OF ARGUMENTS, WE LEAN ON ONE ANOTHER. THIS BOND IS SOMETHING I WILL CARRY WITH ME FOR THE REST OF MY LIFE.”

–Lynette, Arava Institute, Israel

Applying for a grant

The Fund provides supplemental grants of up to $1,500 for young adults who have already been accepted to intern or volunteer in a progressive social justice program. For complete criteria and an application, please visit AmyAdinaSchulmanFund.org. You can also find us on Facebook.

AASMF past grantees:
- Built off-grid energy systems in the West Bank.
- Managed youth programs in the Dominican Republic.
- Fought infant malnutrition in Nicaragua.
- Advocated in asylum cases for east African refugees.
- Supported women’s health and education in Uganda.
- Trained refugees to be youth activists in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
- Supported a public health research program in Peru.
- Managed women’s leadership training programs in Cambodia.
- Evaluated human rights workshops in Colombia.
- Clerked for an Israeli Supreme Court Justice.

Will you join this list?

About our grants

Since Amy Adina’s death, more than 1,000 young people have used the Fund to support their work around the world. Our alumni now include leaders in the nonprofit, government, healthcare, education, legal, and business sectors.

The number of grants we make grows each year thanks to generous annual contributions, bequests, and other gifts that honor special occasions and life cycle events.

One hundred percent of all gifts go directly to grantees. The Schulman family continues to cover all administrative and operating expenses.

Contributions to the Amy Adina Schulman Memorial Fund are fully tax deductible. The Fund is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization; IRS Department of Treasury, 6/14/1991, EIN#22-281-8990.

AmyAdinaSchulmanFund.org